GOING PLACES . . .

When the Ohio Turnpike came to life at midnight on September 30, 1955, we were there . . . Our band and A Cappella Choir with their exultant music were a part of the memorable ceremony when Governor Frank Lausche, at Westgate, linked Ohio into a perpetual chain of motion across the states.

This, to us, is "the year of the Turnpike."

Right: Mr. Dally, Governor Lausche, Mr. Hartman.

IN APPRECIATION

To Miss Wharton, whose gracious smile and warm friendly greeting have brightened the halls of Bryan High School for ten enjoyable years, we are happy to dedicate this book.

ADMINISTRATION

WE CAN SEE IT NOW: I .

Just when does a dream become a reality? Did the Turnpike really begin as the first car wheeled along on it, or did it originate earlier when the first engineer looked at a map?

Our new high school will not rise in steel and brick for many months, but nevertheless it is in progress now as our administrators envision our needs and weigh our resources.

In one way or another, we are all helping to plan the future of Bryan High School.

Mr. Rogge enjoys explaining the plan of the new high school building to Mary Jo Boynton, J. R. Brannan, and Mr. Newell.

SUPERINTENDENT HOWARD W. ROGGE

BRYAN BOARD OF EDUCATION R. K. Mignery, Frederick Parker, Arthur Spletzer, Jr., Howard Maneval, President

OUR ADMINISTRATORS LOOK AHEAD

Facing a crisis caused by the rapidly increasing enrollment, the Board of Education and Superintendent Howard W. Rogge undertook the promotion of the largest building project in Bryan's school history. Bryan citizens cooperated by voting decisively in favor of a $1,175,000 bond issue for a new high school building.

Mr. Rogge, superintendent since 1947, has been tireless in his efforts to keep the school well equipped to serve the best interests of the students. He and the Board of Education have already piloted several building projects and have visited many new schools in this area. Teachers and community groups have been asked to share in planning the new high school.

Mr. Rogge holds a Master's Degree in School Administration from Ohio State University, with undergraduate work at Bowling Green and Ohio University. He is a member of the Executive Committee of the Ohio Education Association and has various other OEA assignments.

PRINCIPAL JOSEPH S. NEWELL

MR. NEWELL IS NEW AS PRINCIPAL

A new voice came over the public address system as Bryan students assembled to begin another school year. Joseph S. Newell, formerly principal at Pittsford, Michigan, took over the position vacated by Mr. Harry Martin, who left Bryan to become principal of the new high school in Lima, Ohio.

Mr. Newell earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Kalamazoo College and a Master of Science in Education at the University of Michigan.

His belief that a high school should give each student a variety of experiences and a basic philosophy of life as well as academic training is fundamental to his administration.

Mrs. Kenneth Rychener, Mr. Rogge's secretary, graduated with Bryan's class of 1944. In addition to her regular duties, she assisted materially with preparing and distributing information pertaining to the bond issue.

Mrs. Richard Hever was Mr. Martin's secretary and remained when Mr. Newell became principal. She was a member of Bryan's class of 1954.

Mr. Newell confers with parents at Open House while Student Council member Bob Ward looks on.

Margaret Rychener and Donna Meyer compare notes.

NATIVES FROM OUTER SPACE ARRIVE BY BUS

REFUEL AT CAFETERIAS FOR AFTERNOON TAKE-OFF

Pat Ames helps Mrs. Leonard Carr with sandwiches

At the crack of dawn and many times before dawn in the winter, seven school buses set out to collect rural students within a five-mile radius of Bryan. Each pupil rapidly learned one rule: punctuality! If he was not ready in three minutes, he was left! Every afternoon the buses picked up the elementary students, came to the high school, loaded for ten minutes and left Bryan at 3:40. Extra-curricular activities involving buses included band and field trips, and the journeys of other nomadic classes.

The cafeterias in Washington and Lincoln Schools did a flourishing business, supplying lunches to seven hundred students daily. With Mrs. Carr in charge, nine "assistant chefs" and sixteen "student chefs" dished up the delicious menus.

"Gracie's" super-features included special menus at Halloween and Thanksgiving, a Faculty breakfast, and a luncheon honoring Seniors at graduation.

CHARIOTEERS OF THE MACHINE AGE. Our three charioteers—Ralph Perry, Delber Long, and Tom Guise in an unnaturally serious mood.

PUPILS AND PLAZA NEED MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS

CITY NURSE AND CUSTODIANS KEEP US IN CONDITION

NURSE SETTLES soothes Dick Goebel's indigestion

Our custodians, Delber Long, Ralph Perry, and Tom Guise, keep busy cleaning up the mud and snow that we track into the school. Besides keeping the building in tip-top shape, they care for the lawn, shrubs and walks surrounding the school.

This year, in addition to their regular duties, they converted the band equipment room into an up-to-date class room to house the sixth grade which was evacuated from Park School when it was razed in preparation for building the new High School.

Our own Florence Nightingale is Mrs. Helen Settles.

A particularly important part of her work this year was the supervision of the administration of the Salk Polio Vaccine to the first and second graders.

Mrs. Settles is a graduate of Western Pennsylvania Hospital and has been a friend and counselor to Bryan students for the last six years.

WISHFUL THINKING

How hard it is to wait for the good things the future holds! Remember when we had doll houses, played "doctor" or "nurse," flew model planes, drove tiny roadsters, or wore G-Man badges? Somehow our games and models helped us span the childhood years of waiting for the big things to happen. . . . And at B.H.S., a favorite game, even for grown-ups, is planning for the new high school. The Industrial Arts faculty and students lead the way with a scale model of their dream-shop.

Mr. Frisbie, Larry Poynter, Larry Shade, Mr. Knecht, and Mr. Koehler look critically at their model of the Industrial Arts quarters in the new high school.

Senior Officers: Bob Saxberry, Vice-President; Eugene Schaefer, Secretary; Lucy Hoyer, Treasurer; Nancy Kerr, President, follow the tradition of the times and help to renew traditions.

ACTIVITIES

ON OUR OWN . . .

The magic hours after school sparkle with the lure of adventure. There's so much to do, and the thrill of choosing is ours! There is time to do what we need to do or want to do.

Many of our activities are organized groups, working together with common interests and goals. We develop our hobbies, learn to take responsibility, gain skill in getting along with people, and feel the rewards of group accomplishments.

In the following pages we are busy with our after-school pursuits.

WE WRITE IT . . . ZETA CORDIA IS A BOOK TO REMEMBER

Early in September, the annual editorial staff got its busy schedule rolling. They arranged the "do-overs," prepared picture schedules, and made copy assignments. Staff members worked hard throughout the year to prepare an accurate and interesting account of the many cherished and unforgettable moments of our school year.

The advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robrock and Miss Lois Rubel, accompanied seventeen staff members when they journeyed to Chicago for the National Scholastic Press Association Convention. There, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, from August 23 to 26, 1955, the group attended classes on yearbook production.

The 1956 edition has the distinction of being the twenty-first sponsored by Mr. Robrock, is twelve pages larger than ever before, and is the second Bryan yearbook to be printed in the offset process.

Lauralee Brownwell and Roger Drummond, co-editors of this yearbook, selected Lucy Hester, Nancy Kerr, and Janie Wingard to serve as assistant editors.

We inherit our name, Zeta Cordia, from two literary societies, Zetagathia and Concordia, which in 1914, prepared our first edition.

EDITORS' CRISIS: Lolly Brownwell, Roger Drummond, Mrs. Robrock, Sally Mason. COPY-WRITING CREW: Linda Solier, Lucy Hester, Janie Wingard, Sonja Mower.

WE PAY THE BILLS . . . PUBLISHING IS BIG BUSINESS

Since the cost of a yearbook is approximately twice the selling price, the business staff of Zeta Cordia zoomed off to an early start. With Miss Lois Rubel as advisor, Business Manager Norman Arnett and Co-Promoters Terry Hagerman and Bob Salisbury set the staff to work selling football and basketball schedule pencils and collecting tax stamps.

During basketball season Barbara Comings and Dee Davis took over the home game coat check. Weldon Ihrig assumed responsibility for counting mountains of tax stamps, sending them in, and collecting the refunds. Subscriptions, after-game dances, generous donations by patrons, and the annual Spring Minstrel Show, given by the Music Department with which Zeta Cordia shares the proceeds, were the remaining sources of funds for the yearbook.

The staff was very proud of the fact that this year all of the six hundred copies of Zeta Cordia were sold and partly paid for by Thanksgiving. This support by our student body was a gratifying reward for the long hours spent to finance our publication.

THE NEWS AT NOON — HI-LIFE DAYS ARE HAPPY DAYS

Probably the twenty most inquisitive people in B.H.S. were members of the Hi-Life editorial staff. Under the guidance of W. F. Hauger, journalism instructor, Editor Jeanette Ledvard and her assistants—Dorothy Rupp, Carol Copeland, Betty Lee, Larry Hopkins, and Curtis Carter—gathered the news feature material, and personal items which made Hi-Life a welcome event every two weeks. This year clever contests were an especially popular feature.

"A More Glorious Future for Bryan Public Schools" Hi-Life's traditional motto, appeared in each issue. Printed by the Montpelier Leader-Enterprise, it included "Roto" once a month.

Last year's Hi-Life won a "Best in Class" trophy in competition at Bowling Green State University and a First Class rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

Delegates from Hi-Life attended the journalism workshop held at Ohio University in June 1955 and the Journalism Association of Ohio School convention in Columbus, October 21-22.

MAKING ENDS MEET

HI-LIFE BUSINESS STAFF BATTLES RISING COSTS

Bills and balances were problems in practical arithmetic for Mary Jo Boynton and her staff as they contrived to keep Hi-Life's budget on an even keel. The fifteen cents collected from each paper had to be supplemented from other sources to pay expenses.

Bryan business men and women purchased advertising space, and revenues from dances and concessions also helped. Noon "Jam Sessions" in the gym boosted sales with a copy of Hi-Life as a ticket. Guessing contests that netted a free Hi-Life or a theater ticket to the student who guessed the score of a ball game, the identity of Santa Claus, or the number of grains of corn in a can, sold more Hi-Lifes to enthusiastic readers. Public address announcements in verse by Ruth Fast and Linda Short kept publication dates in everybody's mind.

HI-LIFE IS THE CENTER of attention this noon through the salesmanship of Milton Levy and Nancy Barrett. Readers are Louisa Perkins, Russell Miller, John Farlow, Barb Huffman, and Lorene Trauseh.

STUDENT COUNCIL SPONSORS ASSEMBLIES

SPECIAL DRIVE BALANCES THE BUDGET

Plunging into assembly activities early in September at State Center, candidates elected representatives for their own competitions, even including the five Seniors, four Juniors, three Sophomores, two Freshmen, and two Junior High representatives to begin the Friday afternoon meetings.

The Council initiated two new practices. They put the secretary of the Homecoming Queen in their court in to the hands of the students, and conducted a three-day drive for contributions toward the five assembly program sponsored by the Council. Each student who paid twenty-five cents received a card saying "I'VE PAID FOR MY ASSEMBLIES. HAVE YOU?" The drive netted one hundred thirty dollars.

Other sources of income were the Kick-off and Homecoming dances, prom, homecoming, and homecoming sales.

Locker problems, bad health, Gas Line, week, Clean-up Day, Christmas decorations, Santa Claus's pack, and awarding a charter to the Chess and Checkers Club were items of business on the Council agenda.

Honorary members of the Council were Fredy Brown, Cecil Olsky, J. R. Beaman, Dean Boulder, and Weldon. They last summer's delegates to Girls and Boys State Advisers were Mr. Newell, Miss Barstow, and Mr. Wagner.

PUELLAE ET PUERI YOUNG MODERNS RELIVE LATIN

Parading in togas and leafy wreaths, Latin Club initiates passed their ordeals and joined in the monthly meetings. Members learned "Mica, mica, parva stella" ("Twinkle, twinkle, little star" to the uninitiated) played Bingo in Latin, and staged a Roman wedding. Mrs. Gibson Fenton showed slides of her travels in Italy and Greece, and the year ended with an impressive Roman banquet. Miss Ruth Max was advisor.

MUCHACHAS Y MUCHACHOS DE SPANISH CLUB

Senors and senioritas turned their thoughts toward our Latin-American neighbors every second Tuesday of each month. Meeting in Room 210 with Miss Krueger as Advisor, the club was open to all students enrolled in Spanish classes, which included Freshmen and Sophomores this year for the first time. The possibility of a summer trip to Mexico was often hopefully discussed, though no decisions were reached.

The group enjoyed slides of Mexico shown by Mr. and Mrs. William Musser, movies by Ford Cullis, and a Christmas party. Spanish Bingo proved to be educational as well as fun, and several members attended a worship service with a local Mexican congregation.

GIRLS SCHEDULE CONTESTS IN SIX SPORTS

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEANS PLENTY OF ACTION

Intramurals in softball, volleyball, bowling, badminton, basketball, and archery kept G.A.A. members in the pink of condition all year as they worked for points and played for fun. Their advisor, Miss O'Brien, scheduled play days with Hillsdale, Edgerton, and Montpelier.

Participation in each sport netted a girl 20 points. She earned additional points by being a team captain or a member of a varsity. Awards given at the annual Honor Night Banquet held April 27 included G.A.A. emblems for those having 400 points, "B's" for those with 800, and silver pins for girls who had earned 1200 points. Lauralee Brownwell was acclaimed Honor Girl and received an orchid and a pearl necklace. Judy Carroll was named Maid of Honor, receiving a bouquet of roses. Following the banquet, the girls and their guests enjoyed a dance, decorated with the theme, "Moments to Remember."

The year ended with the traditional Wakon, a farewell service for the Seniors.

HOMEMAKERS - TO - BE

"Better understanding of family living at home and abroad" was the aim of Future Homemakers this year as they planned their monthly meetings with Miss Hanline, their advisor. Mrs. F. I. Bell was an outstanding speaker as she discussed home life in India from experience she had gained in two years there when Mr. Bell was employed under Point Four as an agricultural advisor.

Girls were eligible for F.F.A. after one semester enrollment in Vocational Home Economics Classes. Several members worked for State or Chapter Homemaker's degrees, and a formal initiation welcomed the new members.

On "Daddy Date Night" the girls' fathers were their special guests, and another social evening honored the departing Seniors. Members took fruit baskets to the County Home, the hospital, and various rest homes.

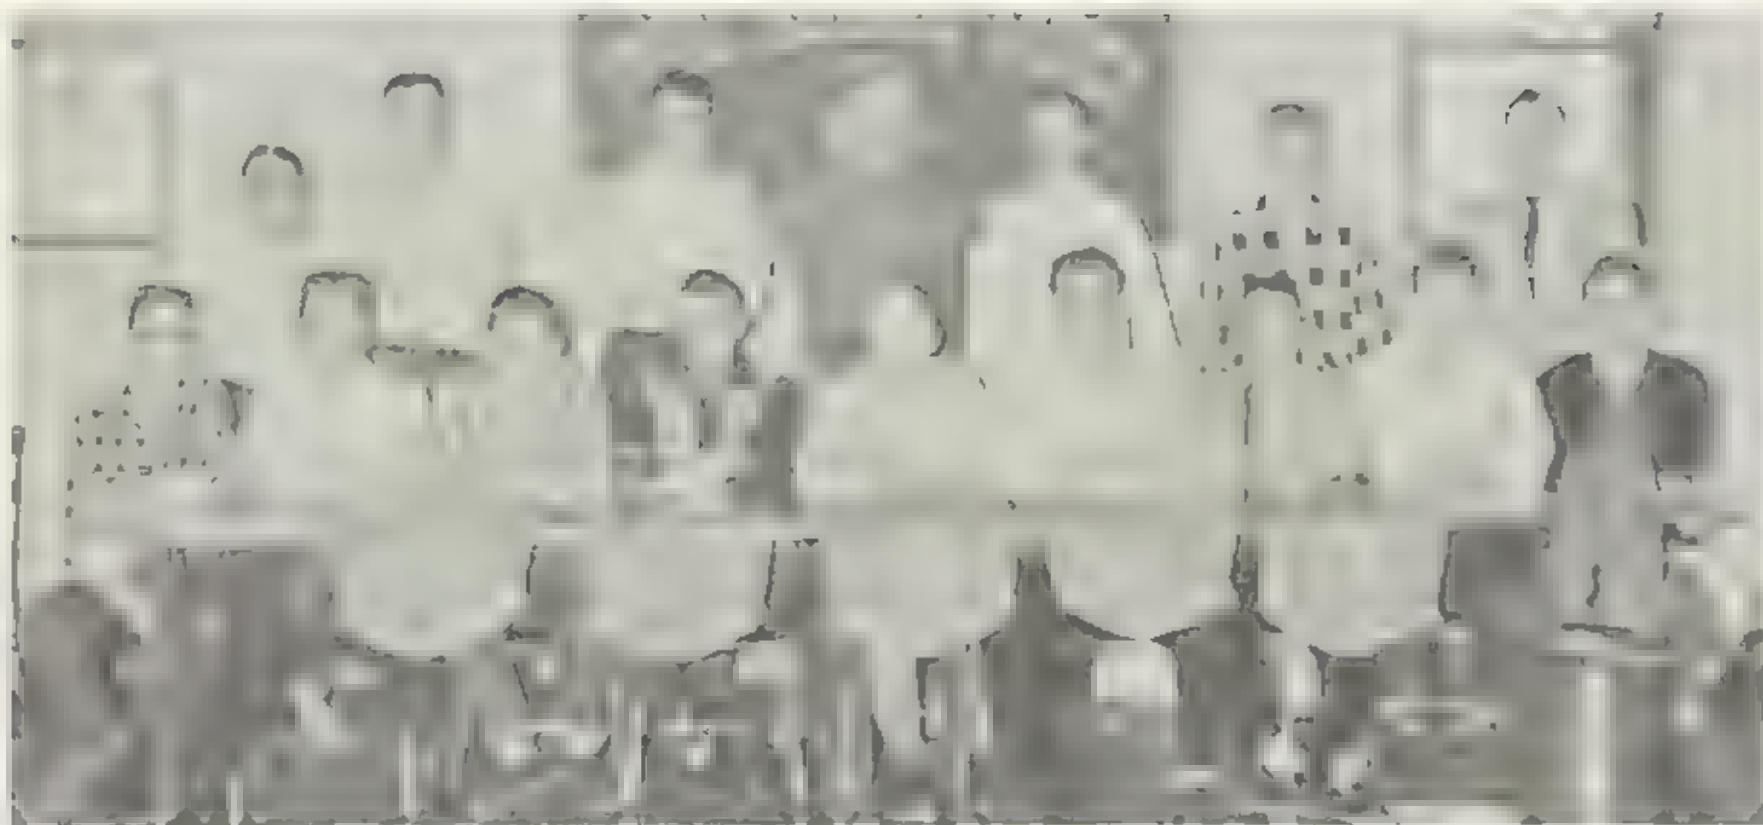

Connie Crutch and Gloria Miller attended summer camp in 1955, and the club planned to send delegates in 1956 also. Kathy Kirby, Dianne Murray, and Joyce Nickels were delegates to the State Convention in Columbus, April 27-28.

Y-TEENS ACTIVITIES

Those who think girls can never be quiet were mistaken the chilly evening of October 19 as Y-Teens and their advisors Miss Ruth Max, Miss Virginia Krueger, and Mrs. Lela Thomas waited in a soy bean field near the Art factory for the invading Hi-Y boys. If Bob Salsbury had not accidentally stepped on one of the girls, Y-Teens might have won the traditional "Hunt". Being good losers, they treated the super-sleuths to a pay-off supper in Lincoln Gym, January 18.

Highlights of their meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month, were tips on good grooming, by Mrs. Evelyn Stevenson, a review of "Nectar in the Sieve", by Mrs. Grace Carr, and an illustrated talk on the U.N. by Reverend Warren Powell of Montpelier.

Y-Teens decorated the auditorium urn at Christmas and closed the year with the Mother-Daughter banquet. On this occasion, Mary Jo Boynton, 1955 Claire Newcomer Award winner, presented her pin to Bonnie Hilton, who had been selected to wear it during her senior year.

HI-Y PLAYS HOST TO DISTRICT CONFERENCE

BOYS ARE SUCCESSFUL SEARCHERS

EAGER TO EAT, Hi-Y boys lined up at the well-stocked tables at the pay-off supper. Mr. Moore got them first.

The boys were triumphant this year in the traditional Hi-Y-Y-Teen hunt and enjoyed a delicious supper as the pay-off. The evening was climaxed by a program and dancing. Another social occasion was a potluck and dance with Girls' Athletic Association.

Hi-Y president, Dave Rose, was elected district president at the fall conference at Dehance. As a result, Bryan was host to the Spring District Conference, April 4.

Shortly after New Years, the boys picked up discarded Christmas trees and disposed of them.

The club, affiliated with the Y.M.C.A., was open to all Sophomore, Junior, and Senior boys.

Meetings were held every first and third Wednesday. At a joint meeting with Y-Teens, a panel discussed the pro's and con's of early marriages.

The Community Chest contributed to Hi-Y's expenses, and the boys sold saltwater taffy at Christmas time.

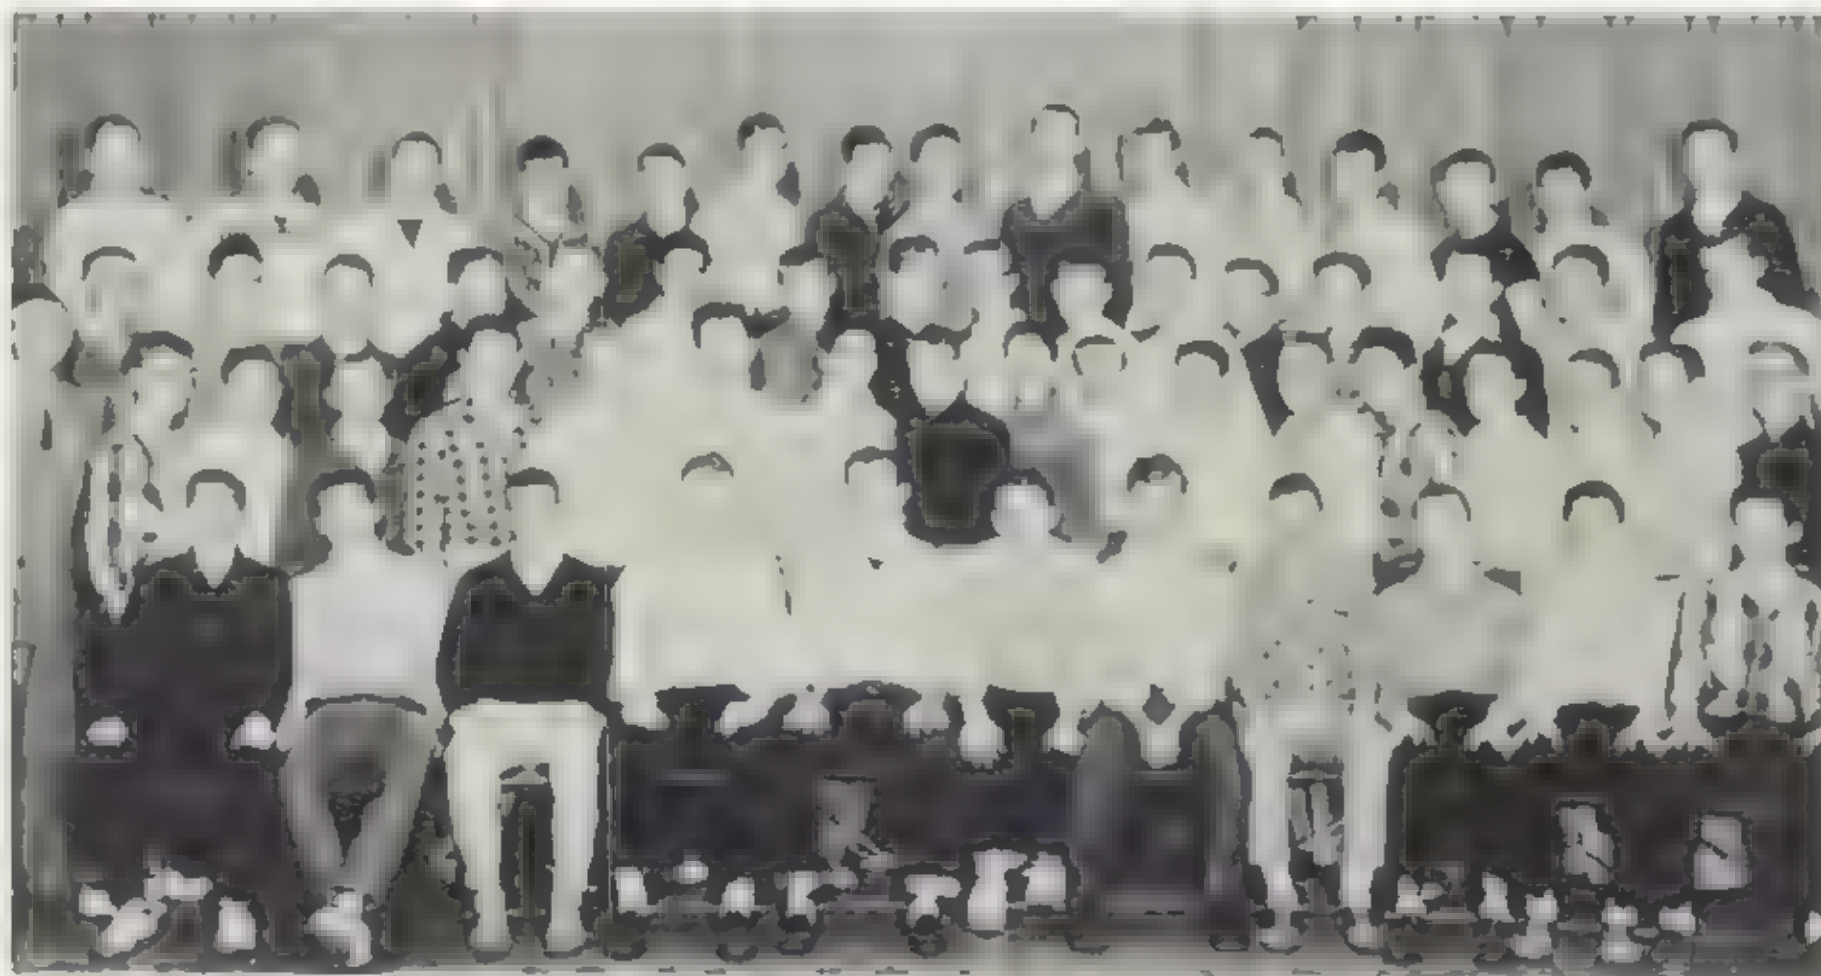

Mr. Shook and Mr. Moore were advisors.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Students interested in teaching turned their interests into practical channels as they visited elementary classrooms and volunteered to assist high-school teachers by typing or taking charge of younger classes for short periods.

Named for Miss Blanche Mattox who currently served her fifty-third year with us, the club met once a month with its advisors, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Webster. Miss Max was a special speaker who related many of her rewarding and humorous experiences in teaching.

The Christmas party, held at Judy Harris' home, featured a "goofy gift" exchange and more.

F.T.A. members attended the N.W.O.E.A. meeting in Toledo October 28 and the state convention in Columbus.

Revenue from the sale of combs bolstered F.T.A.'s finances.

CHESS, CHECKERS, AND CONCENTRATION

Mighty deals involving kings, queens, knights, and castles were common affairs to the chess and checkers players. Meeting the first and third Tuesdays in Room 308 with Mrs. Thomas, Mr. Shook, and Mr. Cayton, members practiced strategy and engaged in tournaments. Fifty-cent dues and small tournament fees paid for trophies awarded the winners.

The Chess and Checkers Club was the most recent organization to be chartered by the Student Council.

Eighteen students who knew their way around the catalogs, files, and eight thousand books in the library were the student librarians. Purely a service group, ranging from eighth graders to Sophomores, they volunteered their help. Under Mrs. Robrock's supervision they took attendance, shelved books, dated an average of eighty book cards a day, pasted pockets in new books, and tirelessly corralled the magazines from tables to racks after each period.

High school students earned quarter credits for their service while Junior-high librarians received extra merits.

MASK AND SANDAL MAKES HEADLINES

NINE PLAYS ARE ON CLUB AGENDA

Certain time came often as Mask and Sandal Dramatics Club met the second and fourth Mondays of each month with Mrs. Walter Robrock as Advisor.

As their major production, the club gave "The Heiress," November 17-18. Based on "Washington Square" by Henry James, the play portrays the plight of a wealthy but unattractive girl who wreaks a bitter revenge on the suitor who rejected her.

Through the year one-act plays and skits gave many students stage training. The Christmas play, "This Strange Night," was directed by Larry Hopkins. Frank Pfaff was the student director of "If Men Played Cards As Women Do," and Gail Fuller directed "The Life of the Party." A Junior group gave "Once a Sailor, Always a Sailor," and Sophomore night featured "Romeo Owed and Julie Et." "The Family Car" was presented at a Guidance assembly and also at the District Drama Festival at Bowling Green. Bryan's increased enrollment placed us in Class A for the first time, and our performance was rated "Good" by the judges. Frank Pfaff was named Best in Cast. Twelve more Thespians plus Carol Castor in an off-stage singing role produced "The Emperor's Nightingale" for the elementary school children.

Membership in Thespian Troupe 227 was earned by those who contributed to stage productions according to the National Thespian point system. On October 22, Thespians traveled to the regional conference at Findlay to present their play, "Portrait of Nelson Holiday, Jr." which was rated runner-up in Class B at the State Festival in April 1955. From this group, Tom McDaniel and Frank Pfaff were listed in All-State Cast.

To provide transportation for those attending the National Thespian Dramatic Arts Conference at Indiana University in June, the club sold candy at Easter.

As in previous years, Mask and Sandal gave awards. In 1955 duplicate "Oscars" went to Joan Reller and Lauralee Brownwell for "Best Actress." Fred Parker was rated "Best Actor." Paul Kirby won the "Best Technician" Oscar for the second time and also the Best Thespian pin. 1956 awards were made too late to be included here.

MUSIC

MUSIC IN THE AIR . . .

Music is a part of our lives . . . How fortunate we are to live at a time when there is music everywhere—when we need never hunger for it as people have hungered in other times! Wherever we go we may have music . . . the organ at church, the radio on our desk, the juke box at the soda shop, the records, the pianos, the instruments in the hands of millions of school children

Whenever we come together, music makes the occasion more impressive or more enjoyable.

CONCERT SOLOISTS Bonnie Hilton, Dick Fox, and John Hartman

Playing for the State Fair in Columbus, the Labor Day Parade in Toledo, Bryan Day at the Fort Wayne Coliseum, the Firemen's Convention in Upper Sandusky, and the Ohio Turnpike Opening at Westgate as well as the out-of-town football games put considerable mileage on the band buses.

Locally the band participated in the County Fair, and the Jubilee, Hallowe'en, Christmas, and Memorial Day parades. Their snappy routines and sparkling new drums dazzled spectators at football games and sparked school spirit at pep rallies.

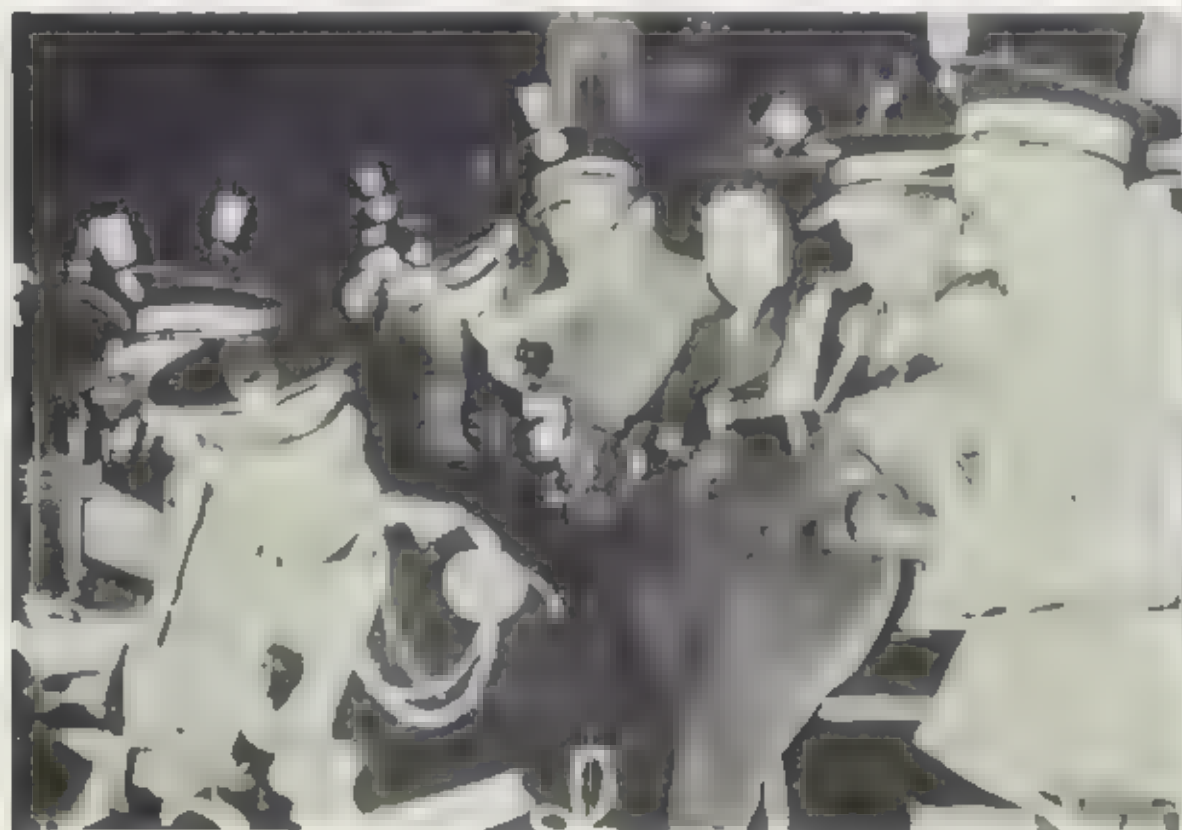

After marching season, they gave three formal concerts and participated in the district auditions.

SENIOR A CAPPELLA SINGS FOR NOTABLES

Singing to a crowd of 2,500, the A Cappella Choir joined the B.H.S. Band to salute the opening of the Ohio Turnpike. On the frosty night of September 30, the musicians piled into buses and drove to Westgate. There they performed a warm-up program and at midnight sang "Beautiful Ohio" as Governor Frank Lausche officially opened the new highway.

The group, which was limited to Juniors and Seniors, participated in the Community Thanksgiving Service, the Christmas Concert, the Minstrel Show, and the district auditions at Defiance. On Palm Sunday they performed the cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by Dubois. Seniors were honored at a breakfast in May, and certificates, letters, and pins were awarded.

JUNIOR A CAPPELLA CHOIR TRAINS VOICES

1955-56 proved to be a transitional year for Junior A Cappella as it was the first time the choir included the Freshmen and Sophomores. The purpose of Junior A Cappella is primarily to train students in the techniques of good singing so that if they wish they may later try out for Senior A Cappella. Under the direction of Mr. Orville Dally, this group performed at the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

MUSICAL ENSEMBLES ENTERTAIN WIDELY . . .

Favorites for their pleasing programs at various community meetings, the Girls' Ensemble rehearsed on Thursday afternoons with Mrs. Orville Dally as director. Their theme song for the Christmas Concert was "It's Beginning To Look a Lot Like Christmas," featuring ballet dancing by Lucy Hester. Wearing black velvet halter blouses and scarlet skirts, they brightened the stage for the Minstrel Show and took part in the regional auditions.

Similar activities kept the Boys' Ensemble and the String Ensemble, both directed by Mr. Dally, very busy. The latter furnished dinner music for the Ohio Music Education Association convention in Toledo.

STEPPING HIGH

Drum Majorette, Ronda Motter, exhibited grace and ease as she led the Bryan Band through their spectacular drills and dance steps.

PRANCING BY

SPORTS

THE TOSS OF A COIN . . .

Heads or tails . . . kick or receive . . . A dramatic way to begin a game. But we know that not many issues in life can be decided that way. The toss of the coin does not determine who wins the game . . . who makes the team . . . who leads the cheers. It does not decide where to build the new high school, how to surface the Turnpike, or which Presidential candidate to elect.

Still, toss the coin and let the game begin . . .

GOLDEN BEARS TRY HARD

BEST SCORES FALL IN FIRST HALF

Bryan Bears played their best game of the season when they upset the favored Locomotives from Montpelier, 14-7, breaking a three-year winning streak for Montpelier. The game was highlighted by a 78-yard touchdown pass from Paul Bodman to David Roebuck just thirty seconds after the start of the game.

Bryan's hopes for a Northwest Ohio League Championship suffered a blow with the discovery that Paul Bodman had a broken wrist just two days before the Napoleon game.

Doug Boynton and Jim Weldon were honored as co captains for the season, and in addition Boynton was selected as a member of the All League team, offensive fullback position. Jim Weldon, Paul Bodman, and Marvin Merrillat rated honorable mention on the All-League team.

BEAT 'EM!

The cheerleaders trained strenuously under Miss O'Brien's direction. Their devotion to Bryan's success in interscholastic sports events set an example for the whole student body. The varsity acquired new uniforms this year and a sixth member was added to the squad Frank Pfaff, the new addition, is the first boy to lead cheers since George Isaac graduated in 1940.

A special responsibility of the cheerleaders was the Friday afternoon pep sessions. They practiced new cheers and set the mood for victory in the evening's games.

P.S. LEST YOU FORGET, THIS WAS THE YEAR —

AROUND BRYAN

Our town was growing rapidly; the population was 7,343, and a new shopping center was developing at the west city limit. A $92,000 fire destroyed the I.O.O.F. building; and the Edith Hopkins house on the square, the oldest in town, was torn down. Rol Christman was re-elected mayor. The Ford Foundation granted Cameron Hospital $16,000, and the Community Chest netted $20,745.

We mourned the death on July 20, 1955, of Carolyn Wheeler, a member of the Junior Class, who passed away unexpectedly after a short illness. Carolyn's friendliness and her energetic cooperation in school activities were missed.

Nine-year-old Georgetta Hartman did it again! After summer engagements at the Palace Theater on Broadway and at Atlantic City, she went to Las Vegas, Nevada, to play with Phil Spitalny's orchestra, Nov. 27-Dec. 21. On New Year's night her one-girl band act was televised from New York on a special Ted Mack show and she appeared with Mr. Mack again in Kansas City, April 29. Her mother, Mrs. John Hartman, accompanied her.

THE WIDE, WIDE WORLD

The U.N. celebrated its 10th birthday, and the F B I. solved the Brink's robbery of 1952. Construction began on the first Earth satellite, to be launched in 1957, the first atomic submarine, the NAUTILUS, returned after a 26,000 mile cruise without refueling. A pilot bailed out of a plane traveling at supersonic speed — and lived. The A F of L. and the C.I.O. merged, and the great Ford Corporation offered stock for sale. The third White House Conference on Education convened Nov. 28-Dec. 1 with Bryan's Elwin Newcomer in attendance. The Supreme Court's anti-segregation ruling lit fires of dissension in the South. Secretary of State Dulles said we had recently been "on the brink of war," and eighteen-year-olds still carried draft cards. We were heading into Leap Year and a hot Presidential campaign.

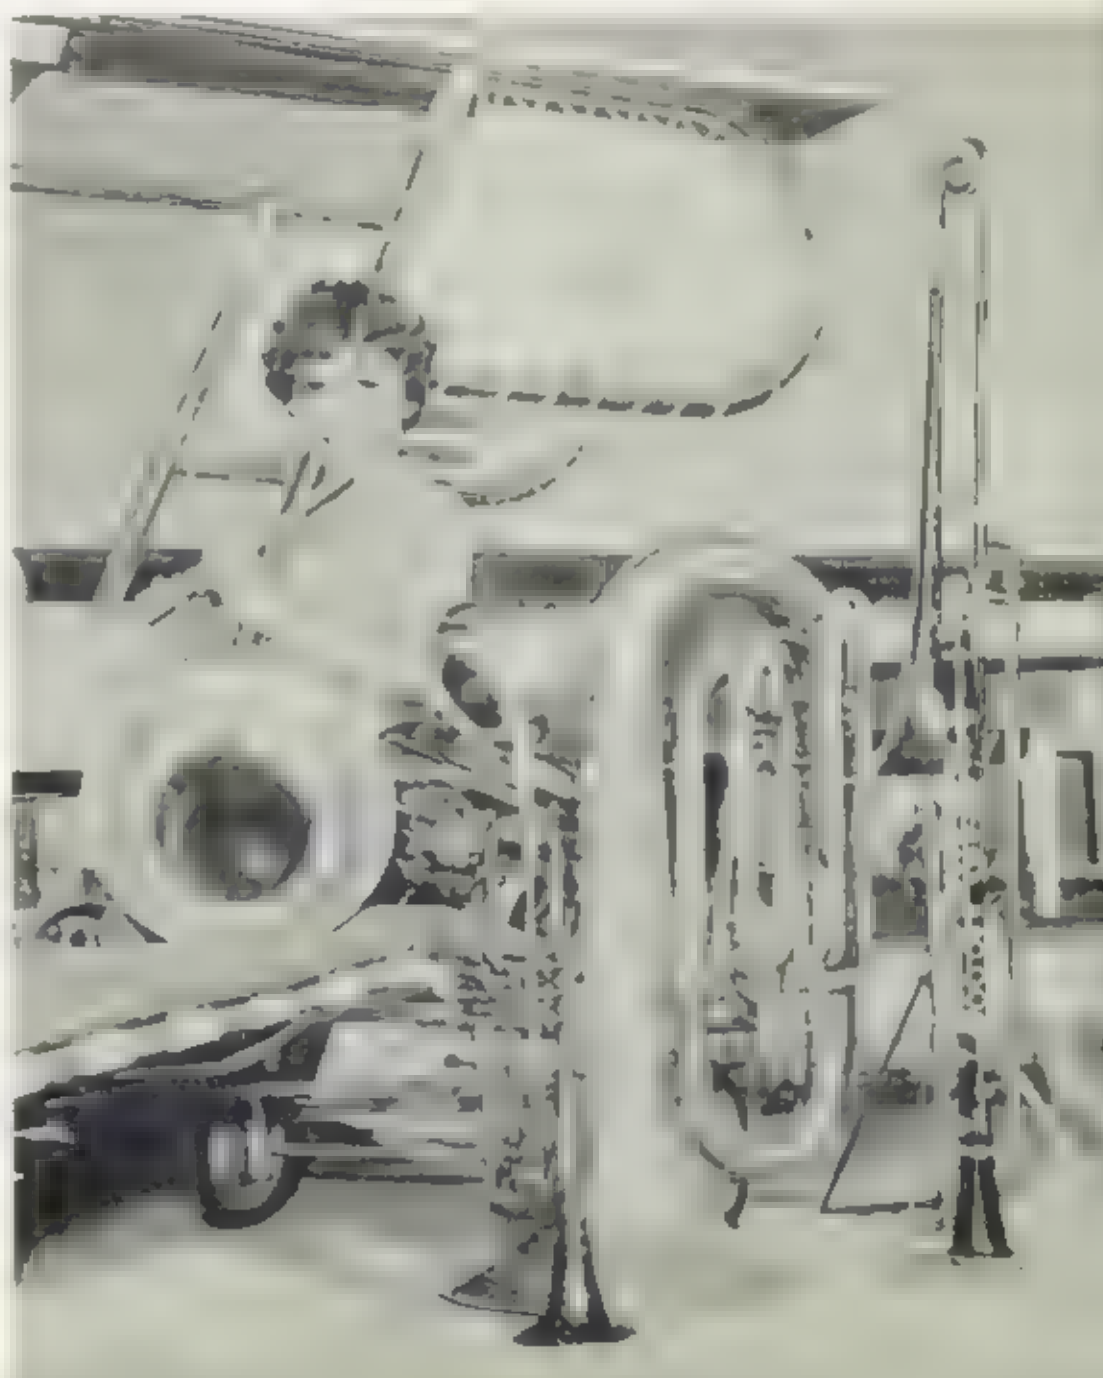

Georgetta Hartman has lots to smile about in Nevada's winter sunshine

POINTS OF INTEREST

Three romances intrigued us: Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds, Princess Margaret and Peter Townsend, Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier of Monaco. We worried over President Eisenhower's heart attack and grieved at the death of movie hero James Dean. We discussed such films as BLACKBOARD JUNGLE, THE COURT MARTIAL OF BILLY MITCHELL, and A MAN CALLED PETER.

DAVY CROCKETT was still popular. We added ROCK AROUND THE CLOCK, SIXTEEN TONS, LOVE IS A MANY SPLENDORED THING, and MOMENTS TO REMEMBER. TV favorites were Jackie Gleason, Ed Sullivan, George Goebel, Garry Moore, and the $64,000 QUESTION. We howled with the Singing Dogs; we read DENNIS THE MENACE and wondered if Marlowe were really Shakespeare. While our parents discussed WHY JOHNNY CAN'T READ, we borrowed more library books than ever before.

In the World Series, the Dodgers beat the Yankees, and Michigan State defeated U.C.L.A. in the Rose Bowl. Winter Olympics were held at Cortina, Italy, and Rocky Marciano remained the heavyweight champ. We planned to take up skin diving next summer.

LOOKING AHEAD TODAY WE GIVE THOUGHT TO TOMORROW

Lower Left: At the jobs: Roger Draper and Bill Mong, Mr. Johnson, Ruth Gentry, and Mrs. Lynn Whitely. Upper Right: Rev. Jack Ke. TOMORROW THERE WILL BE TEACHERS

John White, shown above observing in Mrs. Shirlee Strup's fifth-grade classroom, is preparing for an important future. There are many more young people like him

TOMORROW THERE WILL BE SCHOOLS

The aerial view at the right shows the aging Park School, built in 1880, which stands on the site of the new high school. Our administrators are planning carefully; our community is backing us generously. And there are many more communities like ours.

AND NOW, GOODBYE

Zeta Cordia for 1956 is now history. It is an album of memories. The staff has sincerely tried to produce a true picture of life at Bryan High School. It passes on its obligation, together with its best wishes, to the staff of Zeta Cordia for 1957.
